

PREACHING/TEACHING EVALUATION

Pastor Dave Brown @growinggodlygenerations

- Scripture Text:
- Speaker/Date/Context:
- Content Exegesis:
 - Did the message explain the main purpose of the passage, and the book as a whole? Were the preaching points clear and related to the message purpose?
 - What doctrines were discussed in the message, and were they correctly taught, or were there any potential errors implied?
 - Were there any important questions in the text left unaddressed?
 - Were there unnecessary tangents that distracted the meaning of the text?
 - How did the message relate to centrality of the gospel or was the gospel tacked on unnaturally and supplemental at the end?
- Application:
 - Did the message move you toward grace-centered faith in Jesus and Spirit-empowered obedience; or was it works-based message to do better and about human effort to change?
 - Did the application practically fit the Scripture text, and the church context?
- Presentation Delivery:
 - Did the preacher speak with credibility and conviction?
 - Did the pitch and pace of the preacher fit the Scripture text?
 - Was the length of the message fitting to the text and church context?
 - Were there any mannerisms of body or speech of the preacher-teacher that made listening distracting?
